Measuring College Readiness: ACT's College Readiness Benchmarks

*The EXPLORE college readiness benchmark scores are based on the ACT benchmarks. They reflect students' expected growth from EXPLORE to PLAN to the ACT and assume sustained academic effort throughout high school. The EXPLORE benchmark scores associated with a 50 percent chance of earning a B or better and approximately a 75 percent chance of earning a C or better in the corresponding college course(s) by the time they graduate from high school.

To calculate the percentage of local EXPLORE-tested students meeting College Readiness Standards, locate the figure immediately below CP (Cumulative Percent at or below) that correlates with benchmark for each individual subject area and subtract it from a hundred.

	Local	Michigan	National
English Benchmark Score = 13		65	65
Math Benchmark Score = 17		32	32
Reading Benchmark Score = 15		46	45
Science Benchmark Score = 20		18	16

Percent of Students in College Readiness Standards (CRS) Score Ranges: Page 4, Table 1c

ACT's College Readiness Standards are sets of statements intended to help students, parents and educators understand the meaning of test scores. The standards relate test scores to the types of skills needed for success in high school and beyond.
